DIXIE HIGHWAY ROUTE MAY BE AFFECTED BY RESULT OF ELECTION

S. A. Belcher, of Miami, one of the Dixie Highway commissioners appointed for the state of Florida by Governor Trammell, has written the Daytona board of trade concerning Volusia county's interest in the Chicago-to-Miami road. Here are the essentials of Mr. Belcher's letter:

"It is important that you get busy at once and take some photographs of your roads and places of interest in your county, if you want the Dixie highway. A small kodak will answer. Paste in an album or book, together with other data and general information as to the condition of your roads and what you propose doing in your county."

"There is a strong fight for this great highway, and you can assist me very much in getting together the facts to present at the next meeting of the commission, which convenes at Chattanooga on the 20th of this month."

Local citizens who are working to promote sentiment favorable to the proposed $400,000 issue of bonds to pay for the construction of a hard-surfaced highway in this section of Volusia county have seized upon Mr. Belcher's letter as one of the numerous strong arguments in support of their contentions. They say that if the voters in the territory affected approve of the bond issue on June 8th, the date the election is to be held, that fact will go a long way toward causing the Dixie highway commissioners to route it through the eastern section of Volusia county, by way of Daytona.

It is unquestionably true that Daytona would be very materially benefited, in the event the commissioners decide that the Dixie highway should pass through this city, and it is equally true that nothing should be left undone that would cause the men in authority to favor the Daytona route. The projected highway is to begin at Chicago and traverse sections of the middle west thickly populated with people who have the means and the inclination to enjoy southern tours.

The guarantee of a brick or other hard-surfaced road running north and south through this section of the county and connecting with St. Johns county's brick highway would be an argument that the Dixie highway commissioners could hardly disregard.

UNUSUALLY HEAVY RAINFALL FOR THE MONTH OF MAY

The old saying that "it never rains but it pours," was very literally demonstrated Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, when the flood gates of the heavens were opened and the rain descended in torrents. The precipitation for the period mentioned is reported by J. G. Brown to have been 3.23 inches. Added to the heavy rains of Saturday night and Monday night it gave this vicinity a total precipitation in the five days of more than five inches of rain and the end is not yet.

An old resident of this section said that it has been 15 years since this vicinity was visited by as much rain in the early part of May as has fallen within the past few days. Usually May is a very dry month, the summer rains not coming until June. Within reason, rain at this season is very beneficial to gardens and fruit trees, but from present indications it looks as if there might be even too much of a good thing and the gardens be drowned out.

J. W. Reese is erecting a double bungalow of three rooms and bath in each division on a lot owned by him on Cypress street with the purpose of having the building ready for rental next season.

D. H. S. FIRST ANNUAL TRACK AND FIELD MEET

EVENTS WILL TAKE PLACE TOMORROW AFTERNOON AT 2:00 O'CLOCK IN VICINITY OF KEATING'S PIER ON OCEAN BEACH.

The first annual track and field meet of Daytona high school will be held in the vicinity of Keating's pier, Daytona Beach, tomorrow, the first event being scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon. The boys have been busy arranging for the meet for the past ten days or two weeks, and have as usual found the business and professional men of the city generous in their support of a school affair. Scarcely a business house on Beach street but has contributed a prize or donated money toward the purchase of prizes, so it seems but fitting that the contests should take place on the weekly half holiday, giving the donors a chance to see the sports.

Two classes have been arranged for in practically every event, weight fixing the division. Among the entries to class A events are Branch, Doty, Drake, Esch, Gardiner, Green, W. Burry, McDonald, Milligan, Newman and Rightmire, while Baker, E. Burry, Morford, Mills, Moore, Pope and Winters are among the high school boys entered in class B events. A special event, the 70-yard dash, will give the young ladies a chance to win glory. In this event the Misses Baker, Beville, Butler, Bradshaw, Doty, Melton and Wetherell are among those entered.

Prizes aggregating in value between $35 and $40 will increase the incentive to win. The following events are carded for the day: Mile run; 220-yard dash; 100-yard dash; 70-yard dash; shot put; running high jump; running broad jump; standing broad jump; high kick; sack race; and three-legged race.

A list of prizes, together with the donors, follow. In cases where money has been given it will be used to purchase suitable prizes:

Dr. W. F. Davey, pair of auto goggles; L. H. Rowe, pin; Anthony Bros., Manhattan shirt; Daytona Book and Stationery Co., set of books; Hankins' Drug Co., pearl handled knife; Le-Sesne's Kodak shop, No. 2 Brownie; Coursens, one dozen photographs; Gruber-Morris, baseball; Foster Co., cap; J. L. Wallace, stick-pin; W. H. Peck, cuff links; Our Store, bottle of grapejuice; Ginsberg, Panama hat; Pete Rogers, stick-pin. The following made cash contributions: C. G. Burgoyne, F. J. Niver, Peck-Hendricks, Dr. J. P. Esch, Dr. F. J. Walter, F. N. Conrad, Bert Thompson, E. D. Mills, A. K. Brokaw, Clark's drug store, Wehner & Walton, R. L. Smith.

The finish of the various runs will take place at the pier, while the other contests will be held in its immediate vicinity.

It would be well to make use of the half holiday to go to the beach tomorrow afternoon and see the boys' and girls' exhibition of skill.

C. E. Johnston went over to Palatka Tuesday on a business trip.

THE CABINET HAS UNDER CONSIDERATION AN ORDER TO DR. DERNBURG TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.

LONDON GERMANS FACE DESPERATE SITUATION; HUGE MOBS DEFY POLICE

LONDON, MAY 12.—PITCHED BATTLES BETWEEN MOBS AND THE POLICE ARE TAKING PLACE THIS AFTERNOON. GERMANS ALONG THE EAST INDIA DOCK ROAD ARE CONCENTRATED IN TWO HOUSES, WHICH HAVE BEEN FORTIFIED. THEY WERE STORMED BY MOBS, BUT THE LATTER WERE BEATEN OFF. POLICEMEN DEMANDED THE SURRENDER OF THE GERMANS, PROMISING FULL PROTECTION, BUT THE GERMANS REFUSED.

A SPECIAL CABINET MEETING HAS BEEN CALLED. THE CONSTABULARY WAS ORDERED OUT AT NOON, AND 10,000 TROOPS HAVE BEEN DETAINED TO PRESERVE PEACE. THE DECLARATION OF MARTIAL LAW IS IMMINENT.

LONDON, MAY 12.—ANTI-GERMAN RIOTS ARE INCREASING IN VIOLENCE. THE POLICE DEPARTMENT IS HELPLESS, AND IT IS PROBABLE THAT BRITISH TROOPS WILL HAVE TO BE CALLED UPON TO PRESERVE ORDER. MANY STORES IN LONDON REFUSE TO SELL GOODS TO GERMANS, AUSTRIANS OR TURKS. WHOLESALERS ARE DECLINING TO SUPPLY GERMAN MERCHANTS WITH GOODS.

NOW DRINK COLOGNE

Russian Government Still Faces a Serious Problem.

Methylated Spirits, Furniture Polish and Other Deadly Liquors Are Said to Be Used as Substitutes for Vodka.

By BASSETT DIGBY.

(Correspondent Chicago Daily News.) London.—Apparently total prohibition is not working as smoothly in Russia as the considerable section of British press and public that is urging similar measures over here seems to imagine. In spite of "total" prohibition there is a great deal of drunkenness to be observed in Russia just now among the peasants, who form four-fifths of the nation. Methylated spirits is the chief tipple involved.

I had a talk with a neutral subject who has recently arrived in London from the Russian empire, in various districts of which he has lived many years.

"You can judge of the importance of the methylated spirits issue," he said, "from the fact that the ministry of finance at Petrograd has been organizing an international competition, with prizes ranging up to 30,000 rubles [$15,000], for methods of rendering methylated undrinkable. A second competition is being arranged for new and improved methods of utilizing spirits for combustible and other purposes. In this the prizes range up to one of 75,000 rubles. The total awards in these spirit competitions will amount to $350,000. Here is a fine chance, surely, for keen young American chemists.

"Out in one of the chief cities of Siberia a leading druggist on the main street has been doing a huge trade in a new brand of 'eau de cologne' of his own manufacture. It consists of alcohol flavored with lemon juice and has a few drops of eau de cologne to give it a slight verisimilitude to the real thing. This, of course, is beyond the means of the peasants. They drink either methylated spirits neat or mixed with other liquids.

"In the last few months a new drink has made its appearance at the numerous country fairs in the empire. It is called kassak. Kvass is theoretically a very slightly intoxicating liquor made from fermented rye bread. Of recent years, however, the name has been given to all soft drinks consisting of water flavored with fruit essence. The termination 'ak' is a diminutive, like the 'chen' in German. In this case it implies not only an affectionate regard for kvass but an indication that there is only a little kvass in the mixture.

"When I left Petrograd in February dead men often were picked out of the snowy gutters at daybreak; they had become blind drunk on methylated spirits the previous evening, had fallen unconscious and had soon frozen to death.

"A preparation of furniture polish, a sort of French polish, also is being imbibed to a great extent.

"This methylated spirit tippling is doing a lot of harm in Russia. Unless the finance ministry's competition produces results, it is expected that the ban will be lifted from beer. There is a widespread agitation now in favor of permitting the sale of a low alcohol percentage beer, to compete with methylated.

"Among the middle and upper classes eau de cologne has become the favorite drink—when drink has a hold on them. It is nicer than methylated. But that, say the Russians who must have drink at any cost, about lets it out."

THIS HORSE WAS HOMESICK

Breaks Loose From Stall and Tries to Swim From Muskegon to Chicago.

Muskegon, Mich.—A week ago Abraham Smoker purchased a horse at Chicago, which was shipped by boat to Muskegon.

Yesterday the horse broke loose from its stall while Mr. Smoker was feeding it. Following with unerring instinct the very streets it was led along after being taken from the boat, it went to the Goodrich wharf. Without hesitation it sprang on the ice in Muskegon lake and ran for two miles to the harbor mouth, where it reached a piece of soft ice and fell through. The animal was rescued by firemen.

"A carrier pigeon couldn't have had a keener instinct for home," Mr. Belfy remarked.

HEIRS LOSE $5,000,000 LAND

Court Finds Against Descendants of Spanish Family—Will Continue Fight.

Los Angeles, Cal.—The Sepulveda heirs, representing an old Spanish family, lost title in the superior court to a strip of tide land variously estimated to be worth from $5,000,000 to $50,000,000.

The suit was brought by Susana Sepulveda and others to quiet title to the land upon the ground that although it was tide land, it was expressly included in an old Spanish grant of 1846 and never recognized by the United States.

The heirs will appeal to the state supreme court and in case of an adverse ruling, to the United States Supreme court.

THE "POOR FELLOW"
By MARY H. WITHEMER

(Copyright, 1914, by W. G. Chapman.) "Poor fellow!" murmured Miss Darrell, and her gentle face softened as she looked at the young man who came down the pretty park path and sat down on the rustic bench beside her, engaging in casual, friendly conversation.

The "poor fellow" was Ernest Harper. He looked grave and troubled, but it seemed as though the presence of the cheery little woman beside him made him momentarily forget his anxieties.

"How sorry I feel for him!" breathed Rose as they parted. "How unworthy is she of the love of a man like him!"

"If Rose only knew!" soliloquized Ernest as he went on his way. "Ah, me! life is a sad enigma."

Here were the facts in the case: Ernest Harper was engaged to the sister of his dearest friend, Lora Moody. And Rose Darrell knew that Lora did not love him, was a flippant flirt and would bring him pain and disappointment in the years to come.

How she had found this out was her own treasured secret.

Ernest was surprised to be aroused from his morning slumber by the announcement of a servant that Mr. Moody, Lora's father, was in the parlor below and "would he please dress and come down at once?"

When Ernest joined his early visitor he found Mr. Moody pacing the room up and down in a state of great agitation.

"Ernest," he spoke in an unsteady tone, "I've got some bad news for you."

"Ned—" began Ernest.

"No, Lora."

"She is ill?"

"Worse!" groaned the unhappy father. "Ernest, boy, be brave! We deplore it all, and you have been the man all through, but drive her from your thoughts. She is unworthy of you."

"You mean—?"

"She eloped last night with Lieutenant Trescombe."

It was a severe shock to the astounded Ernest, but less from personal grief than pity for the chum and his family, upon whom this hard blow had been brought. In a measure he was relieved.

"If Lora loved him," he said, quietly, "she will be happy with him."

"But you—you? We feel so for you!"

"Don't think of me, Mr. Moody," returned Ernest. "I only wish them joy and contentment."

"You are a noble fellow!" declared Mr. Moody.

"Free!" Ernest Harper whispered to himself as later that morning he once again strolled in the little park, thinking over the acute change in affairs that had come about. Was he thinking, too, of Rose? If so, that accounted for a new brightness in his face as he made her out at a little distance.

She greeted him with a warm hand-clasp, her face showing deep womanly sympathy.

"I am so sorry," she said in a subdued tone.

He sat down beside her with a deep sigh. It seemed as though a strange restfulness came over him. He knew what was in her mind—friendly pity, genuine interest. She was rather surprised at the calm, grave manner in which he took his trouble.

Rose drifted the conversation into general channels. She manifested an interest in his work. She spoke of a book he had written and he was gratified to discern that she was familiar with all its details and especially appreciated the parts of it which he himself prized.

At the end of a week the Moody family heard from the truant daughter. She was married and was visiting with the family of her husband. He was an empty-headed fellow, but had wealth and lively social connections, and, while glad of his escape from marrying a woman he did not love, Ernest really believed that Lora would be happy in her new environment.

Ernest decided to leave the village. He went to bid farewell to the girl he cherished as a true friend. They were seated in the garden when a little brother of Rose came running up to her.

"I found the locket, sister!" he cried, excitedly. "On the croquet lawn," and he handed to Rose an article at which Ernest stared strangely.

"Why!" he could not help exclaiming, "where did that come from?"

Rose turned scarlet, she evaded his glance. She was terribly flustered.

"I—that is, Lora—"

"Cast it aside—yes, I know that," said Ernest, "but—"

Rose suddenly recovered her composure.

"Shall I tell you the truth?" she asked frankly. "Well, then, I felt very sorry for your sake."

"And sister has worn it ever since till she lost it," broke in the little brother, "and she cried when she did—"

"S-sh!" faltered Rose, but the truth was out, and Ernest Harper read her tell-tale face aright.

Ernest covered the trembling hand of the young girl at his side with his own. He gazed earnestly into her eyes.

"Rose," he said, "could it be possible that you also kept that rejected memento for my sake?"

Her dear, sweet face bent lower out of sight. She could not reply. But her hand did not leave the gentle caress of his own and Ernest Harper knew that he had found perfect bliss at last.

DAYTONA BEACH.

DAYTONA BEACH, May 12.—Next

Sunday evening is the anniversary of the organization of the local Epworth League workers, which they will observe by an interesting program, following the installation of officers. The program will begin at 7:30.

Mrs. Colborne and pretty daughter, Miss Hazel Colborne, who have been spending some time at the Shelly apartment house on Atlantic avenue leave Sunday morning on their return to Toronto by way of the steamer, Apache from Jacksonville to New York. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Waterson.

Editor Codrington and nephew, Clapton Codrington, motored over from the county seat for a day on the beach, Sunday. They registered at the Daytona Beach hotel.

The following Sanford party were Sunday guests at the Daytona Beach hotel: G. C. Chamberlin and wife, Sanford; A. C. Croft and L. I. Hall, New York.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ayres, winter residents on North Halifax avenue, left Sunday morning by rail for their summer home in Lansing, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Nickerson, who have been occupying their winter home on Peninsula drive for the season, departed Tuesday morning to spend the summer, as usual in Chatham, Mass.

Mrs. J. E. D. Graves is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Keating, and family, in the absence of Mr. Graves, who went to Brainbridge, Ga., the first part of last week and is not expected home until the end of this week.

Honoring Miss Willaume.—Miss Willaume, the popular young bride-elect of Daytona, was again honored Monday evening, Mrs. H. F. Stewart and daughter, Miss Ruth Stewart, hostesses, by a kitchen and dining room shower, which was followed by a dance, given at the Seaside Inn. Fifty invitations were issued and the evening was altogether delightful for the younger society set.

The spacious lobby and reception rooms were handsomely decorated in roses, lilies, honeysuckle and a variety of vines and pot plants. Over the mantel was massed in prodigal wealth the beautiful poinciana blossoms. Miss Willaume was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Fruit punch and a variety of delicious homemade cake were served. A musical program furnished by Wilson's orchestra, also the dance music later in the evening, featured in the pleasures of the occasion. The stormy evening contrasted vividly with the brightness and mirth within, but before leave-taking time came the rain and dwindled down to occasional light dashes.

DeLand House Party at the Beach.—Miss France Sparber and about 18 of her schoolmates from Chaudoin hall, Stetson university, motored over Saturday for a week-end house party at her home on Grandview avenue.

They were properly chaperoned by one of the teachers. Most of the party were Stetson students in the music department, and members of the Stetson Glee club, and Grandview avenue enjoyed some extra good music while they were here. Bathing was the popular pastime, and the young people, ten of whom remained over until Sunday afternoon, enjoyed their holiday to the fullest extent.

Mrs. M. E. Lewis and Mrs. E. Penney, who have been occupying rooms in Mrs. Powell's apartment house on Harvey street, left Monday on their return to Stockholm, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Phillips, winter residents on Grandview avenue, returned to Pittsford, Vt., this week.

Hon. N. E. Harris, the successful candidate for governor of Georgia, and wife, are occupying their cottage on Palmetto avenue for a few weeks' rest before he assumes his new duties in the executive mansion, in June.

Major Crews, the popular business representative of the Times-Union, was circulating among his friends and acquaintances on the beach Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hibbard, of Live Oak street, left last week for New York in the hope that the change would be beneficial to Mrs. Hibbard, who has been in ill-health all winter.

Sweets for the Sweet.—Miss Ruth Coates, honoring Miss Ella Willaume of Daytona, entertained 22 or more of her friends on Thursday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:00 at her home on Palmetto avenue at a preserve and favorite recipe shower.

At a dainty flower contest Mrs. Ackland Stilling won the jar of jelly offered. The dainty decorated express wagon which delivered the jars of preserves and jelly to the honoree was driven by Master Alfred Vandevord. An appetizing salad course and hot coffee were added zest to the enjoyment of the hours. "The End of a Perfect Day," sweetly sung by Miss Marion Knight, was also a pleasant feature of the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Horn and babies, who spent the season on the beach, leaving their cottage on Palmetto street, moved back home the latter part of last week, and are again comfortable settled for the summer.

Mrs. H. T. Coates and daughter, Miss Elsie Coates, left Monday afternoon to visit friends in Sanford and Tarpon Springs. They expected to be away from home about a couple of weeks.

A Successful Gardener.—Some of Mrs. A. Vande Vord's friends claim that if she planted a rusty nail it would grow. As to that we are not so sure, but her success in the cultivation of rare plants and edibles has gone forth. She has a most promising fruit orchard of citrus trees, peaches, plums, pears and one quince tree all growing finely, and many of the trees in bearing on her lot north of the home. Her vegetable garden is furnishing the home with plenty of fine squash and peas, now that the early vegetables have been pulled, and a rhubarb bed, which has been furnishing the family with delicious pies since early spring. Of her many experiments this is one of the ones in which everybody said, "You can't grow rhubarb here. Thus-and-so and thus-and-so have tried it and failed, and you are wasting your time." And so she is particularly proud of her success. The plants are large and thrifty and grow off very rapidly, but as she said, the bed was carefully prepared and contains little else than a black dirt foundation and stable fertilizer.

Mrs. Nellie Tyler Durfee, who was at Ocean Spray all season, leaves on Friday with a party on her return to Binghamton, N. Y.

A strawberry and ice cream festival will be given Thursday afternoon in the church dining room under the auspices of the ladies' aid of the M. E. church.

H. F. Stewart went over to DeLand Tuesday to visit his brother artist, Mr. Fluhart, who has the chair of art in Stetson university. Messrs. Fluhart and Stewart expect to work up some material they have on hand during the two weeks' visit.

The regular meeting of the town council Monday night was postponed until Tuesday night on account of the heavy downpour Monday night.

Miss Rogers, who is visiting Mrs. Sadie Sheets at the Olds' winter home on North Halifax avenue, left Monday morning on her return to Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Wm. Wakefield and daughter, Miss Mabel Wakefield, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haight were among the departing winter residents of Peninsula drive this week.

Mrs. Robert S. Holmes and parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ayers, left Wednesday for Lansing and Detroit, Mich., respectively, to spend the summer as usual. They were accompanied by Mrs. Holmes' aunt, Mrs. Thompson, of Stockbridge, Mich., who was with Mr. and Mrs. Holmes all season.

The chamber of commerce will meet one night this week, time not set, to consider arrangements for a big Fourth of July celebration on the beach.

Mrs. Sales, guest at Pinehurst for some time, has returned to her home in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. M. F. Barnes, who came down from St. Augustine to see Mr. and Mrs. Treglow on their trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition, returned to the Ancient City to close up her business, and will spend the summer here in the Treglow winter home on Halifax avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lund have again taken possession of their home on Earl street, Seabreeze, which was occupied by winter tourists during the season.

WHILE the transient population of Daytona and the peninsula cities has dwindled to a few score souls, there are still several thousand permanent residents here. And they have to buy food and clothing and shoes and summer comforts and amusements.

The DAILY NEWS goes into the homes of several hundred families of these people every day except Sunday. And, Mr. Merchant, many of those people expect you to talk to them, through the DAILY NEWS, about the things you want them to buy---and things they WANT to buy.

W. U. Whipple left Tuesday for his home in Monticello, N. Y., for a brief visit. Mr. Whipple, who came to Daytona six weeks or more ago and has has been engaged at the Magnolia Novelty Works, has purchased an interest in the business and will make his home here, bringing his family to Daytona next fall. Mr. Whipple is an architect and builder and in connection with the regular work of the novelty mill a contract and building business will be conducted.

Appropriate.
A distinguished theologian was invited to give an address before a Sunday school. The divine spoke for over an hour, and his remarks were too deep to comprehend. At the conclusion the superintendent, according to custom, requested some one in the school to name an appropriate hymn to be sung. "Sing 'Revive Us Again,'" shouted a boy in the rear of the room.

SERVICES TOMORROW MORNING
AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Tomorrow being Holy Thursday, or Ascension day, there will be services in St. Marys' Episcopal church with holy communion at 10:00 a. m. The services will be conducted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Robert McKay.

Cause for Complaint.

A quiet little Chicago lad serves as altar boy at the family church on certain days of the week. He has been attending rather oftener than usual of late, and his mother recently inquired the reason, adding that he seemed to her to be doing the work of himself and his comrade. "So I am," grumbled the boy sharply, "but I can't help
it. That darned kid always ditches his dates!"

Marriage.

Voltaire, in his "Philosophical Dictionary," says: "The more married men you have the fewer crimes there will be. Examine the frightful columns of your criminal calendar; you will find there a hundred youths executed to one father of a family. Marriage renders men more virtuous and more wise. The father of a family is not willing to blush for his children; he is afraid to make shame their inheritance."

Mix a small quantity of soft soap with the same proportion of powdered starch and salt and the juice of a lemon. Apply this mixture to both sides of the stain with a small brush, and, if possible, let the article lie on the grass all day and night until the stains have quite disappeared. Then wash in the usual way.

Attacked in Front and Rear.
A youngster of our acquaintance who has a faculty for getting into scrapes recently expressed the wish that he was a postage stamp. When asked why, he answered: "Because a postage stamp can only be licked once." Whereupon we pointed out that the stamp received, besides the licking, a severe punch in the face.

Daily Thought.
Silence is the ambrosial night in the intercourse of friends, in which their sincerity is recruited and takes deeper root. The language of friends is not words, but meanings. It is an intelligence above language.—Thoreau.

By No Means.
The wife generally knows when the old man needs a haircut, but that is no sign that she should be intrusted with the job.

ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL D.A.R. CHAPTER

BIENNIAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS HELD AND MUCH BUSINESS TRANSACTED—CHAPTER GAINING IN MEMBERSHIP.

Abigail Bartholomew Chapter, D. A. R., held its last regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Murray Foltz, South Palmetto avenue.

It being the annual meeting the session was almost wholly devoted to business. Reports of officers showed that the chapter was increasing in membership and on a sound financial basis. The retiring regent, Mrs. A. T. Bigelow, then gave her address.

As none of the delegates from the chapter were able to be present at the recent national congress, held in Washington, D. C., Miss Thorp and Mrs. Raynor gave some press reports of the congress.

The biennial election of all officers of the chapter resulted in the unanimous election of the following members:

Regent, Mrs. Charles H. Raynor; vice regent, Mrs. J. P. Esch; secretary, Mrs. J. B. Garrison; treasurer, Mrs. Octavia Thorp; registrar, Miss Kathryn Thorp; historian, Mrs. Jerome D. Maley; chaplain, Mrs. Robert S. Holmes.

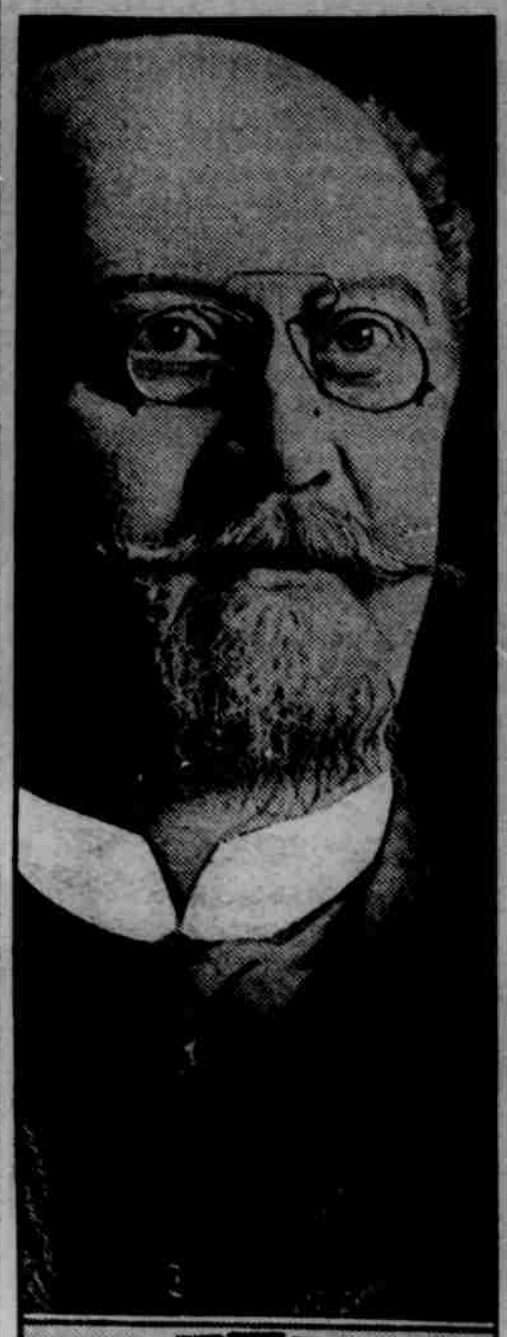

A delightful social hour, during which dainty refreshments were served, was followed by adjournment for the season.

Nothing to Be Thankful For.
Those favored few who, by their rank or their riches, are exempted from all exertion, have no reason to be thankful for the privilege. It was the observation of this necessity that led the ancients to say that the gods sold us everything but gave us nothing.—Charles Colton.

Worth While Quotation.
Some people are always grumbling because roses have thorns—I am thankful that thorns have roses.—Selected.

For Better or Worse.
"Why did you send your sweetheart to the wilds of Africa to hunt diamonds?" "Two reasons—he might come back with a fortune or he might not come back at all."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

GERMAN WHO DEMANDS PEACE

Philip Scheidemann, a prominent Socialist member of the German reichstag, has joined with a number of his fellows in demanding that the government take steps to end the war at once. He protested vehemently against the suppression of Socialist writings and speeches.

Something of a "Slam."
Mandy—"What foh yo' been goin' to de post office so reg'lar? Are you corresponding wif some other female?" Rastus—"Nope, but since Ah been readin' in de papers 'bout dese 'conscience funds,' Ah kind of thought Ah might possibly git a lettah from dat ministah what married us.—Topeka Journal.

Alpaca.
In spite of attempts to introduce the alpaca into countries away from its native habitat, failure has attended them. It is rarely found below an altitude of 5,000 feet. Its wool is of an exceedingly fine luster and quality, and occasionally attains a length of six inches.

THE WEATHER

Florida: Partly cloudy Thursday; showers in the and northeastern portions; winds, mostly southeast.

Cheap Witticism.
It were well if the so-called story writer, who, too often, chief nuisance of the manager of all magazines, could be to a realization that mere fiction and disgusting incidents "fun;" it would save postage the certainty of rejection. National Magazine.

Epitaph Misinterpreted.
A neighbor's little daughter, looking for some time at a pebble's epitaph, which bore a professor's fireplace, ran home mamma!" she said, "the B—the strangest sign in this room. It says, 'For God's sake disturb the dust.'"—Boston script.

Mystery About Precious Stones.
That the diamond and other precious stones were made in fathomed and fiery caves of brought to the surface by other upheaval, is well especially in regard to them South African fields; but more rious than this is that they have found in the paths of the ancient drifts of North America. are held to be very vaguely all crystalline forms which are of the mysteries.

Camps New and Old.
At an auction sale in New York recently an oriental rug sold for 700; it was bought for a "camp." Shades of Kit Carson, Crockett and other pioneers in life will please take notice and on the change in standards "roughing it" first became pure.
